We have dedicated the design of our hotel at Hamburg Airport entirely to the dream of flying. In the cozy lounge of the Motel One Hamburg-Airport, propeller-shaped room dividers made of solid walnut and historic motifs printed on metal revive the history of aviation.

The sky above the bar is illuminated by luminaires by Tom Dixon, whose soft forms evoke memories of pioneering aviation aircraft. A natural stone wall with world time clocks not only reveals the current time in Sydney, London and New York, but also highlights Hamburg's role as a metropolis and trading metropolis.
