PROFESSORSHIP (W2) FOR SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETING AND SIGN LANGUAGES

Institution: Faculty of Humanities

Salary level: W2

Commencement of duties: as soon as possible

Application deadline: 2022-03-24

Responsibilities:

The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct research in sign language interpreting and sign languages with a focus on sign language linguistics, sign language culture, and/or sign language technology in all of its facets.

The successful candidate is expected to take part in the University's profile initiative Literacy in Diversity Settings/Linguistic Diversity.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

Requirements:

Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 15 HmbHG.

Additional Criteria:

Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects.

The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

Non-German-speaking post holders are expected to acquire the language skills necessary to teach in German (Level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) within two years of commencing employment.

As a University of Excellence, Universität Hamburg is one of the strongest research universities in Germany. As a flagship university in the greater Hamburg region, it nurtures innovative, cooperative contacts to partners within and outside academia. It also provides and promotes sustainable education, knowledge, and knowledge exchange locally, nationally, and internationally.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Severely disabled and disabled applicants with the same status will receive preference over equally qualified non-disabled applicants.
