DIVERSITY DAYS

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF HAMBURG

From June 23 to 27, 2025, the Office for Gender Equality, together with many other stakeholders at our university, will offer an extensive program (digital, hybrid, and in person) on the occasion of Diversity Days.

In a variety of event formats, employees and students will have the opportunity to engage with various aspects of diversity at the University of Hamburg.

Get a taste of the study programs Sign Languages and Sign Language Interpreting

During the taster session at IDGS, our lecturers, who are both Deaf and hearing, will give you an introduction to sign language and interpreting processes. You will learn about German Sign Language (DGS) and the culture of Deaf people, and discover many exciting things.

We will not only give you comprehensive insights into our degree programs in Sign Languages and Sign Language Interpreting, but also introduce you to our research work. We guarantee that this event will be accompanied by a team of interpreters. This will allow you to experience a rare and exciting communicative situation.

We look forward to seeing you there.
